We Write the Book: Craft Programs for All Ages Fall 2025

About

Artist Debra Disman is back at the Northridge Branch this fall to teach this all-ages craft series, where we learn to make a different book each session! No experience required, and there will be new things to learn for those who have taken her workshops before. All are welcome, and you can come to as many sessions as you want! All materials are provided. Children under the age of 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

This program is made possible by a grant from the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs.
